

Ancient meets Contemporary: Wines from Lebanon and Georgia

WoW is pleased to invite you to a one-off event looking at the wines and viticultural heritage of these ancient wine producing nations, as well as the struggle to balance conflict and business in war-torn countries.

Speakers include: Chris Dabrowski, a defence expert to guide us through the history and politics of both countries; Darrel Joseph, wine writer specialising in Central and Eastern Europe; and Sami Massaya, acclaimed founder of Massaya in Lebanon's Bekaa Valley.

When: Tuesday 6th October 2009, 7-9pm

Where: Whole Foods Market, Barkers Building,
63-97 Kensington High Street W85 SE

Tube: High Street Kensington

Price: £13 for members, £18 for non-members.*

Sponsored by:

Any questions? Please email events@womenofwineuk.com

Why not take this opportunity to join WoW?

Membership is only £45 per year and if you join ahead of the event, you will pay the discounted members' price.

For further details and an application form,
please email membership@womenofwineuk.com

The Small Print This event is only open to women. Tickets are limited and issued on a first come first served basis and can only be confirmed once full payment is received. Refunds can only be issued if notification is sent to the above Events email address more than 7 working days before the event. After this, we will endeavour to sell your ticket, but if we are unable to, unfortunately we cannot issue a refund. Women of Wine is a non-profit making group run on a voluntary basis by its committee and all events are self-funding.

Deadline for payment is 30/09/09 so act fast to avoid disappointment!

Wines from Ancient Lands Event Reply Slip: Please detach and return with your payment.

Name: Membership number (if you have it to hand):

Phone number/email address:

Your company:

Names of your guests:

Cheque enclosed for:

Please send a cheque made payable to Women of Wine to:
Vanessa Austin, 705 Maurer Court, Mudlarks Blvd,
London SE10 0SZ